(b) what steps Government are taking to rehabilitate them?

THE MINISTER OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI MUFTI MOHAMMAD SAYEED): (a) 26,514 and 6100 families have been registered at Jammu and Delhi respectively as migrants from J & K. Some families have migrated to parts of Rajasthan, UP and Maharashtra; their precise number is not known.

(b) The basic policy of the Government is that all those who have left the Valley are encouraged to go back as soon as conditions in the Valley improve and till then the basic needs of the people are to be looked after. There is, therefore, no proposal to rehabilitate them elsewhere.
